

Please consider postponing the vote on media consolidation regulations until the public has been informed as to exactly what the proposed changes to the current regulations will be.